Dear Members and Friends,

With Rosh Chodesh Elul behind us, it is time to start thinking about the High Holiday. Rosh HaShanah this year commences Wednesday evening, October 2nd and continues through Friday night, October 4th. Kol Nidre will take place Friday evening, October 11th with Yom Kippur on Shabbat, October 12th.

This year, there will be no charge for individual seating. However, should a member or friend wish to reserve a specific seat, it will cost the discounted rate of $50. We will give priority to members for seat selection up until Thursday, September 26th. A portion of the proceeds from each seat purchased will be allocated for armed security during our High Holidays services.

Please make sure all dues and other commitments to B'nai Torah are satisfied before making your seating arrangements. We are looking forward to receiving a "clean slate" from the A-lmighty this High Holiday season. It would be appropriate, therefore, to wipe clean our own slate of obligations, as well.

Best wishes to you and your family for a happy & healthy new year.

Sincerely,

Gad Flaumenha

*3 Hours CLE Credit & LE Credit • Check in begins at 12:45
Light reception to follow program at 4:00 pm*

Since October 7, 2023, when Hamas horrifically attacked the State of Israel, antisemitic behavior across the United States and our state has sharply increased. Some of the more alarming actions include riots on college campuses, protests in the streets, and threats against Jewish people on social media. This continuing legal education and law enforcement training is designed to increase awareness of antisemitism and educate on how to combat such disturbing conduct. It will provide 1) insight on antisemitism in Indiana; 2) an explanation with case studies on antisemitic extremism and how it is becoming an “acceptable” extremist ideology in America; and 3) an overview of the First Amendment and its implications for antisemitic rhetoric.

Speakers:

Todd Rokita - Attorney General, State of Indiana
Allon Friedman, M.D. - President, Jewish American Affairs Committee of Indiana
Dr. Lorenzo Vidino - Director of the Program on Extremism, George Washington University
James Barta - Solicitor General, State of Indiana

Presented by the Office of Indiana Attorney General Todd Rokita
