Dear Congregants:

I am happy to announce that Rabbi Teitelbaum has agreed to be our new Rabbi. He will begin his duties as our Rabbi in January.

Our thanks and appreciation go out to Rick Bently, Jeremy Hull, and the rest of the Rabbi search committee for their time and effort in this endeavor.

Rick, especially, put his heart and soul into this in order to make it happen.

They said that it would take about a year to find a new Rabbi, but we did it in 3 months. Please thank Rick and the others for their hard work when you see them.

There has been a sense of excitement and of enthusiasm in our community over the past 2 months. The addition of the new Rabbi will continue to inspire us to do whatever we can to grow our community. May we continue to go from strength to strength.

Gad Flaumenhaft

President

This past Shabbos, our community had the privilege to host Rabbi Dov Keilson in honor of the Sacks Elul Program. We are grateful to the Sacks family for their support of this annual program. Rabbi Keilson spoke multiple times throughout Shabbos and also served as the Chazzan Friday night and Shabbos morning. The messages and words he shared with our community were inspiring and uplifting as we approach the High Holidays.

On Sunday morning, Rabbi Keilson shared his musical talent at a piano performance at the home of Mark and Colleen Shere. Rabbi Keilson shared many of his own compositions in addition to other songs accompanied by his piano playing and sharing of Torah messages and anecdotes.

Thank you to Mark and Colleen Shere for hosting this event; as well as to Jack Cotlar for photographing, and Michael Voskoboynik for his videography and sound setup. We are also grateful to those who sponsored the delicious Kiddush Luncheon catered by Keisari catering: Aaron and MeChelle McDaniel, Stephen and Monica Rosenfeld, Jeremy and Chava Hull, Mark and Colleen Shere, Anonymous, Roy and Shoshi Yaari, Elisha Sacks and Jennifer Berday, Rabbi Yaakov and Tzirel Rutstein, Jack and Sally Cotlar, Rabbi Aryeh and Adina Birnhack, Emmet Hanick and Shoshana Kay, and Gad and Fran Flaumenhaft.

As mentioned over Shabbos, Rabbi Keilson is the author of multiple books. For those interested, they can be purchased here <https://www.darchei.org/shop/>
