The spirit of Sukkos 2024/5784 at Bnai Torah was nothing short of extraordinary; a blend of dedication, inspiration, and celebration that left a lasting impact on our entire community.

Firstly, thank you to Jeremy Hull and a devoted team of community members who worked hard to build the Shul's sukkah!

Throughout Sukkos, we were privileged to hear from a wide array of inspiring speakers, both from within our community and from those who were visiting. We extend deep gratitude to those who stepped up, bringing depth and passion to the podium. We are also grateful to the members of our community and visitors who led us in davening and Torah Readings.

The joy reached new heights over Chol Hamoed with an unforgettable Simchas Bais Hashoeva. Thank you to the incredible efforts of the programming committee: Jack Cotlar, Rick Bentley, Tzirel Rutstein, and Adina Birnhack. DJ Brian joined us once again and the social hall was full of dancing, music, energy, and simcha! Thank you to Parisa and Yisroel of Keissari Catering for the delicious dinner prepared for this event!

The pinnacle of the holiday was Simchas Torah! Thanks to Yisroel Keissari and Rabbi Eitan Tennenbaum, the shul raised 5x more than usual in selling Simchas Torah honors. We were blessed to host four talented bachurim (rabbinical students) from the Yeshivah of Greater Washington for the second days of Yom Tov and Shabbos. Their presence brought a new level of energy to our community as they served as Chazzanim, delivered divrei Torah, ran a Teen Minyan, led youth programs, and infused the Simchas Torah dancing with an unparalleled energy and joy. The Rabbinical Students also enhanced Yom Tov meals by various members of the community and were an exciting and powerful addition by davening, kiddush, and programs. We also welcomed many member of Etz Chaim who joined us for Hakafos on Simchas Torah night along with Rabbi Ashkenazi following a delicious Yom Tov meal by Keissari catering. Thank you to the Bnai Torah Sisterhood for sponsoring the flags given out to the children to dance with both at the Simchas Beis Hashoeva and Simchas Torah as well as to Parisa Keissari for the exciting and delicious treat bags!

Thank you to Roy Yaari, Adina Birnhack and Tzirel Rutstein for coordinating the Teen Minyan and youth program with the visiting Rabbinical Students for the Bnai Torah Youth Shabbos! We are also grateful to Tehilla Rutstein for leading a youth program for the younger children on Shabbos afternoon. Our profound thanks to Rabbi Eitan Tennenbaum, Rick and the BT programming committee for arranging for the bachurim to join us, their presence elevated the Simchas Torah experience beyond what we could have imagined.

Last, but certainly not least, we are equally grateful to the Bnai Torah Religious Committee; Rabbi Yaakov Rutstein, Josh Brown, and Yisroel Keissari, who's behind-the-scenes work and profound dedication ensured that everything ran seamlessly throughout the entire Yom Tov.

Bnai Torah welcomed Avraham Gottleib, Yechiel Hyman, Aaron Hecker and Baruch Taffel from the Yeshiva of Greater Washington for Simchat Torah
