Purim 2025 was a whole new creation! With the halachic guidance of Rabbi Teitelbaum, we were able to experience a unique Purim/Shabbos setup called "Poreis Mapah," which only comes around once in a blue moon! The next time Purim falls on a Friday will be in 20 years!

The evening began with a delectable Purim buffet by Keisari Catering, balloon animal creations, a photo booth, snow cones by Koby, and The Rope Warrior Show, complete with a light-up finale! It was a fun Purim event for all ages. Then, in just a few moments, we ushered in Shabbos together as a community with candle lighting, followed by a women's Kabbalas Shabbos kumzitz led by Malka Teitelbaum and a lively Lecha Dodi in the shul. This was followed by a delicious family-style Friday night dinner, once again provided by Keisari, complete with all the kiddush and challah specifics (Kiddush yes/HaGafen no, washing yes/HaMotzi no)! The excitement of Purim and Shabbos, along with the achdus (togetherness), was palpable as we enjoyed a two-fold evening filled with dancing, singing, and community. Thank you to everyone who helped make this event so special and to all those who joined us.

Special thanks to volunteers: Rabbi Birnhack, Rabbi Rutstein, Rick Bentley, Caryn Vogel, Asher Cox, Josh Brown, Nadav Keisari, Shoshi Yaari, Gad and Fran Flaumenhaft, Jeremy and Chava Hull, Laura Voicu, Koby Yaari, Jack Cotlar, Shoshie Yaari, Chavi Grayman, the Birnhack kids, Eli Tennenbaum, Shalva Rutstein, Rachel Schwartz, and Asher Schwartz.

We would like to express our gratitude to Rabbi and Mrs. Teitelbaum for all their help with this unique event, including endless halachic guidance, leading the women's kumzitz, shopping, setup, and freezer assistance! Last but not least, a huge thank you to Israel and Parisa of Keisari Catering for their hard work and dedication in planning, catering, and serving a two-part Purim and Shabbos meal with all the unique details that went along with it. Thank you to Monica Rosenfeld for the hours you spent assisting them!
